Open to all South Dakota K-12 students!

Contest Information, Rules, and Entry Form

South Dakota Soil Health Coalition's 2024 Student Soil Health Video Contest is open to all K-12 students in South Dakota. Prizes for the contest will be $750 for first place, $500 for second place, $250 for third place, and $100 for fourth place.

Students may form teams of no more than five members to submit entries. If the team members represent an FFA chapter, 4-H program, or other student agriculture organization, they are asked to submit contact information for that organization so that any prize money can be sent to the organization. By submitting videos for this contest, entrants give permission for the South Dakota Soil Health Coalition to publish and display them, in part or in whole, in any media, venue, or format.

To enter the contest, students must submit an original video of no more than 4 minutes in length addressing the question: How would improved soil health benefit your community?

Students are encouraged to be creative with scripts and video editing.

Entrants also must complete the attached entry form. Please provide complete addresses. The team members and their parents or guardians must sign the form in order for the contest submission to be considered.

The video file, along with the completed and signed entry form, must be submitted via a file transfer service to stan.soilhealth@sdconservation.net no later than Jan. 7, 2024. (Video files should not be emailed directly because the files are too large. Use a file transfer service instead.) Contact Stan Wise at 605-368-4091 or the email above to confirm your file transfer link was received. If students use music in the video, they must submit the audio license codes for the music on the attached form.

Winners will be announced at the 2024 Soil Health Conference, Jan. 23-24 in Rapid City.

If students have questions, they are encouraged to contact the South Dakota Soil Health Coalition at sdsoilhealth@gmail.com or 605-280-4190.
